

THE CENTRAL OKANAGAN HERITAGE SOCIETY is a registered charity which began in 1982. The purpose of the Society is to promote and participate in the preservation and restoration of structural, natural, cultural and horticultural heritage within the Central Okanagan region. Through our ongoing public awareness, we strive to lead by example with regard to the viability of adaptive reuse of heritage properties. For nearly 30 years the COHS has been advocating for and actively participating in heritage preservation within the Central Okanagan.

We welcome your membership with the COHS!
